Motivations

Very involved in my work, I prepare courses adapted to the level of the learners. In addition, I constantly keep up to date with the latest techniques in order to keep my courses current and bring up-to-date information to the users.

My experience in teaching in hospitals, both in adapted sports and in recovery, has allowed me to acquire solid teaching skills and adaptability. Also, I will be able to adapt to all audiences.

Project development

- Collaborated with the GENEVE team on the development of the PSYCHATRY AND ART project.
- development of the COFOR recovery college MARSEILLE FRANCE project
- Development of the JUJITSU thérapie project how to transform the patient into a top-level athlete
- Inventive problem solving :
- To solve the problem of patients waiting forever in hospital, I set up meal and fun workshops.

I, the undersigned, Dr. Aurélie TINLAND, Hospital Practitioner, MD, PhD, and project lead for the Recovery College (CoFoR) in Marseille, hereby certify that Mr. Belkacem BENAOUMEUR has been actively involved in this initiative since its inception in 2016.

The “well-being” groups led by Mr. BENAOUMEUR within the MARSS team, aimed at individuals with severe mental health disorders living in precarious conditions, served as an inspiration for our Recovery College from the very beginning, during the co-construction phase with service users. During these early discussions, I witnessed how invaluable Mr. Belkacem BENAOUMEUR’s expertise and his unique connection with the people concerned were in laying the foundations of this project.

Since CoFoR’s launch in January 2017, Belkacem BENAOUMEUR has coordinated three “well-being” modules per year, each consisting of 12 sessions, amounting to a minimum of 48 sessions annually, for approximately 12 individuals with mental health disorders and varying levels of disability. He designs the module’s educational content, selects relevant guest speakers, provides individual support to students, and adapts the program as needed. He also personally leads many of the sessions, which are highly praised by participants. In fact, the module he coordinates consistently receives the highest satisfaction ratings in the systematic assessments conducted since the project’s inception. Notably, when he had to step away from this role for two quarters due to personal reasons, participant satisfaction levels dropped significantly.

Indeed, Belkacem BENAOUMEUR demonstrates an exceptional ability to adapt to everyone. The educational content he develops is highly original and particularly relevant to recovery journeys.

His approach toward service users is exemplary, fostering recovery.

He is an effective trainer—attentive, non-judgmental, and open-minded—who continuously refines his content.

He is a source of inspiration for his colleagues and an invaluable asset to this project.

Represented by Caroline Bernard as artistic director,

Regarding the engagement of Belkacem Benaoumeur for the project "Don't Make A (Psycho)Drama! We're Still In A Game..." / Chemins de traverse

Dear Sir/Madam,

Mr. Belkacem Benaoumeur has accompanied us during a research residency for the creation of the show "Don't Make A (Psycho)Drama! We're Still In A Game..." which will be performed in March 2025 at the Saint-Gervais theater in Geneva.

This research residency took place from December 9 to 20, 2024, at the 3 BISF theater in Aix-En-Provence. Mr. Benaoumeur was present due to his dual experience: his field experience in mental health and his expertise in martial arts.

As such, he has contributed to advancing our research between martial arts and mental health. Furthermore, he remains a resource person in the coming months to continue advancing our creation.

Our company, based in Geneva, is recognized as a public utility organization. Its live arts creations are backed by fundamental work in civil society, and Mr. Benaoumeur's contributions are very valuable in this regard.

I remain available for more details and can be reached at +33 (0)6 23 51 01 80.

I, the undersigned:

Mrs. AUBOIROUX Geneviève, President of the Association Solidarité Réhabilitation, attest that Mr. Belkacem BENAOUMEUR has been contributing since September 2017 to the development of CoFoR - Centre de Formation au Rétablissement in Marseille, a center that can be related to the 'Recovery College' concept.

In this capacity, he led and still leads the WELLNESS module within CoFoR, taking care of 12 students each term.

By offering Jujitsu thérapie, Taïso workshops and boxing, he has succeeded in proving that martial arts practised as pedagogical and didactic aids can be considered as genuine therapies.

The CoFoR project was originally an experimental project (5 years) involving evaluations carried out by the students at the end of each term. These evaluations are still ongoing today.

We can therefore affirm today that the impact of these practices and workshops is evident in the recovery of our students, and this impact contributes to the development of recovery.

We would like to sincerely thank Mr Belkacem BENAOUMEUR for his commitment and valuable contributions to the project.

You can reach me on 0033 6 08 92 46 31 or click on the link to the CoFoR project:
