To Whom It May Concern:

I write this letter of recommendation for Hesham Madany with great enthusiasm for the exceptional quality of his work as a translator of English to Arabic and vice versa. He has been translating for our organization for the last 2 years on an as-needed basis depending on available projects on diverse subject matter such as transport, medical, mechanical etc.

Hesham has translated a wide variety of documents and articles, and he has shown particular adeptness at working with colloquial expressions, slang and “out of the ordinary” expressions in Arabic. While he is vigorous and meticulous in insisting on exact meanings for words — both languages — he also understands that words are, at best, symbols for expression. Thus, he is capable of more than literal transposing from English to Arabic and vice versa.

His inner work ethic is fabulous. He is tireless in his translating work, and actually seems to be invigorated by his love for words. When he receives clear instructions, and when expectations (both his and supervisor's) are precise, Hesham flourishes.

While his command of spoken Arabic and English is more than adequate for any business/technical situation, Hesham's forte is certainly in written translation. He will excel in literary, technical, business or diplomatic applications of translation between Arabic and English. If you are looking for an intrinsically motivated translator for your documents, journals, manuals or correspondence, Hesham is someone well worth full consideration.

Sincerely,

Nash Syed, CEO
